Control panel

- Indication lamps on the front panel indicate available battery charge and charging status. For stable and continuous operation, it is recommended that the battery pack should be recharged when two or more indication lamps are lighting. Recharging to full capacity may take 6 hours.

Battery charge level lamps

- The five green LED lamps indicate battery charge level stored in the battery pack inside. Each lamp denotes about 20 % of full charge capacity of the battery.

Charging status lamp

- The yellow LED lamp is turned on when the charger unit plug is plugged into the charging jack. The lamp flashes when charge level reaches to full charge.

Sealing lamp

- The red LED lamp indicates RF power is being generated and applied to the hand unit. The lamp is turned on by pulling the trigger level, and is turned off automatically when a seal is made at tubing, or in 3 seconds after.

Sealing hand unit & Carrying bag

- Additional plug-in type SureSeal™ sealing hand unit
- Ergonomic design with standard 1.8m (6ft) cable
